Walker Is Batted Rather Freely, but Keeps Safe Ones Spread Out.,

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., June 28.—By outbatting and outfielding the locals, the Coits captured the first of the series this afternoon. Reynolds was on the mound for the home team, and was touched up to the tune of twelve safe bingles. Up to the sixth the Highlanders had a lead of one run, but in this give the visitors two runs and a lead which the home club could not overcome.

Walker worked in the box for the Colis, and did it well. The eight hits made off his delivery were scattered throughout the game. While more errors are registered against the visitors, some of them were excusable.

In two innings Roanoke had a chance to score two or more runs, but the necessary hit was not forthcoming. Hennager officiated and did it well. The game was played without kicks to mar it. Score;

Jump on Foxen After Hamilton Retires With Two Sore Fingers.

ers scoreless to the tune of 2 to 4
Hamilton started to do the slab work for the Truckers, but had two fingers on his pitching hand badly hurt and had to retire in the middle of the second Inning. He was relieved by Foxen, who was touched up for two tallies, both of which were earned.

Loos, on the firing line for Danville, was almost invincible, being hit for two sateties. Both teams hit the ball hard, but sensational work on the part of the outfield of Danville prevented the Truckers' drives from counting. King, in right field for the visitors, was unusually fast, scooping up two line drives which were almost on the ground, and one completed an easy double, preventing the Truckers from scoring in the second. LYNCHBURG, VA., June 28.—Norfolk was completely outclassed here to-day in a slugging match, the Shoemakers winning by the score of 10 to 1. The visitors would have been shut out but for an error by Green, a Baitimore player, who was tried at third. While Norfolk secured nine hits off Grimn they were scattered generally. In the first inning the first three men up for the Crew singled, but not one of them reached second.
